If you were satiated by the first "Transformers" and "The Proposal" just isn't ringing your bell, try a different kind of movie experience this summer.

SCREEN, the brand-spanking-new multimedia theater located within theWit Hotel, has opened with a bang. "Wednesdays at theWit" is a new cinematic series that will combine a movie chosen by a renowned Chicago film expert with a post-show discussion and a gourmet lunch.

Created in collaboration with New York film critic Harlan Jacobson, founder of the Talk Cinema series, the "Wednesdays at theWit" events will take place at this state-of-the-art cinema showing under-the-radar screen gems. Each session will begin at 10AM with coffee service, followed by the film at 10:30AM and lunch, wrapping up around 1PM (so, it's time to pull the "I have a dentist appointment card" at the office). SCREEN boasts top-of-the-line projection and audio technology, along with luxurious seating and cocktail tables for premium refreshments.
